

Todd is a born-again, saved by grace believer who is called into the Southern Gospel music ministry. He was blessed to be brought up in a strong Christian home that was full of spirit and song and a love for serving the Lord. After spending three years as the lead singer of a men's trio group, Closer Walk, he has been led into a vocalist ministry for local and surrounding churches and venues. He has had the opportunity to share the stage with groups, such as, Brian Free & Assurance, Driven Quartet, Danny Funderburk, and many more. Todd is a graduate of the Steve Hurst School of Music in Tennessee where he has been afforded the opportunity to receive personal training from some of the greatest singers and teachers in the music industry some of which are Mark Trammell, John Rowsey, Lauren Talley, and Jim Brady. He utilized this unique education while working as the former Music Director and Worship leader for Needham Road Baptist Church.

“My desire is to share God's wonderful message through uplifting and encouraging music; and for my words to be His words so they will clearly point this world to the Cross of Christ. I have placed this ministry in God's sure and powerful hands and expectantly watch and wait for Him to do extraordinary things.”
